Remploy - Employment placement services for individuals with disabilities, including autism and Asperger's

Established in 1945 and with a network of more than 60 branches across the UK, Remploy is the UK’s leading socially minded business helping disabled people and those with health conditions into work.

Our support includes:

- CV writing
- confidence building
- searching and applying for jobs
- interview practice
- IT skills
- training and improving your skills
- disclosing your disability or health condition to employers
- advice and guidance once you have started your new job.

Last year we found more than 18,500 jobs for disabled people and those with health conditions.

As well as providing support in person from branches, individuals can access support and tools to find a job and stay in work through our unique online service. You can also chat to our online advisors seven days a week, via our website if you have any questions or queries.
